"Outstanding service and great communication. Thank you so much for planning our Alaska vacation. It was a great trip and it wouldn't have been possible without your expertise. Suzie was exceptional in planning our entire itinerary. Also, the included transfer from the cruise ship in Whittier was a lot of fun and a great value."

Because we own and operate our businesses in Alaska, we are able to give our clients the most accurate and current information concerning travel options. We pride ourselves in being Alaskan experts. In operating an award winning Bed and Breakfast, internationally recognized Tour Company, Travel Agency, and long term Design & Consulting firm, we have established superb working relationships with over 450 Alaskan vendors, as well as vendors in Canada, Italy, Kenya, Tanzania, Ecuador, Peru, and the Galapagos. We live and work in Alaska full time so we are available to assist both in-state and out-of-state travelers with immediate and future planning. We operate annually with four to six employees, and during the summer season that number can grow to over ten. Our company was founded with the mission to make quality travel to Alaska and the world both easy and affordable. It's not always about money. Our philosophy is that your vacation should be tailor-made to your personal needs. We will lend you our personal experience and attention to make the most of your visit.

10 Day Great Alaska Tour

$1579 per person

Anchorage - Talkeetna - Denali - Seward – Fairbanks

Day 1. Anchorage — Arrive by your own arrangement into the Land of the Midnight Sun. After picking up your rental car, you have free time to get settled into your Anchorage accommodations, get over your jet lag, and maybe enough time to see some of the sights and sounds of the city. Your overnight accommodations in Anchorage will be at a select bed and breakfast or local hotel.

Day 2. Anchorage - Today explore two included Anchorage's highlights—the Alaska Native Heritage Center and the Anchorage Museum of History and Fine Art. Both are great adventure. Your overnight accommodations are at the same location.

Day 3. Anchorage to Seward — Today begins early with real beauty and adventure. Drive the Seward Highway while you take in the breathtaking scenery along Turnagain Arm and through the mountains to Seward. Watch for Dahl sheep, bald eagles and beluga whales. In Seward wander the streets and shops of this historic town and plan to have dinner at a local seafood restaurant. An earlier arrival can include an optional Kenai Fjords Wildlife and Glacier Cruise. Your overnight accommodations in Seward are at a select bed and breakfast or local hotel.

Day 4. Seward to Anchorage -- Sleep great and make an early morning departure to Exit glacier national Park for a close-up encounter with the face of a magnificent glacier. Returning to Anchorage includes a visit to the Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center and Portage Glacier Visitor Center. You day can include an optional Kenai Fjords Wildlife and Glacier Cruise. Overnight accommodations in Anchorage provided again in a select bed and breakfast or local hotel.

Day 5. Anchorage to Talkeetna — Sleep great and make an early morning departure up the Parks Highway to Talkeetna. Stop at the historic Athabaskan Indian village of Eklutna and then into the Mat-Su Valley. Tour the Iditarod Dog Race and Knik Museums. Arrive in Talkeetna late afternoon and enjoy your free time or add an optional activity to your itinerary. Overnight accommodations in Talkeetna provided in a select bed and breakfast or local hotel.

Day 6. Talkeetna to Denali — Early this morning enjoy your free time exploring Talkeetna or add an optional activity to your itinerary. Your early afternoon drive north takes you through the high country into Denali National Park. Arrive in time for an optional rafting or white water adventure down the Nenana River. Overnight at one of the area's select bed and breakfasts or cabin accommodations in Denali or the nearby town of Healy.

Day 7. Denali — Today includes a full day guided tour through Denali National Park on the park's transportation systems. Your day will be fascinating as you quest for the "big four" -- grizzlies, moose, caribou, and Dahl sheep. Finish your day enjoying your free time or add an optional activity to your itinerary. Overnight in Denali once again at your select lodging.

Day 8. Denali to Fairbanks — Today venture further north to the gold rush town of Fairbanks, Alaska's Golden Heart. Stop at Ester Gold Camp on the way. Upon arrival enjoy your free time or add an optional activity to your itinerary. Overnight in Fairbanks once again at a B&B or local hotel.

Day 9. Fairbanks to Anchorage -- A spectacular drive today down the Richardson Highway paralleling the Alaska Pipeline takes you south to Anchorage. Arrive early evening in Anchorage for your overnight once again in a select B&B or local hotel.

Day 10. Anchorage -- Your last day in Anchorage can be spent resting, shopping, or catching up on some of the local sights before meeting up with your return arrangements.

8 Day Denali Family Vacation

$3489 per family

Anchorage - Denali - Fairbanks – Valdez

Day 1. Anchorage — Arrive by your own arrangement into the Land of the Midnight Sun. After picking up your rental car, you have free time to get settled into your Anchorage accommodations, get over your jet lag, and maybe enough time to see some of the sights and sounds of the city. Your overnight accommodations in Anchorage will be at a select bed and breakfast or local hotel.

Day 2. Anchorage -- Today explore two of Anchorage's highlights—the Alaska Native Heritage Center and the Anchorage Museum of History and Fine Art. Both are great for a family adventure with plenty of things for the kids to do and enjoy. This evening treat yourself to one of Anchorage's really fine restaurants. Your overnight accommodations are at the same B&B or local hotel.

Day 3. Anchorage to Denali — Sleep great and make an early morning departure up the Parks Highway to Talkeetna. Stop at the historic Athabaskan Indian village of Eklutna and then into the Mat-Su Valley. Tour the Iditarod Dog Race and Knik Museums.
